

Jennifer Clark, NACCA 1st Vice President and Judicial Executive Assistant for The Honorable Diana L. Sullivan , Las Vegas Justice Court

Jenn was born and raised in Virginia Beach, VA a beach town on the Virginia/North Carolina border. She attended Tidewater Community College and graduated Magna Cum Laude in 1999 with an Associate of Applied Science degree in Legal Assisting. She continued her education at Virginia Wesleyan College and in 2003 received a Bachelor of Arts in Social Studies with a concentration in Political Science.

Jenn moved to Las Vegas in January 2005 to be closer to her sister. She was employed as a Legal Secretary for the civil litigation firm of Ghanem & Sullivan, LLP. She began working for the Las Vegas Justice Court, as a Judicial Executive Assistant, when Judge Diana Sullivan was elected to the bench in 2008.

Jenn has been volunteering since October 2007 as a Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) working with abused and neglected children in the Clark County foster care system.

Jennifer is an avid sports fan and you can find her in front of a TV watching her Washington Redskins or one of her tow college teams, the Virginia Tech Hokies or Florida Gators during football season. She also enjoys reading, traveling, hiking, biking and any activity on the water.